

HOW TO SPEND YOUR WEEKEND

LIFE+STYLE

WISE OWL KNOWS ALL

Rebecca Jewell's Owl Feathers is a finalist in the Waterhouse Natural History Art Prize. The winner was announced last night and will be on show with the other finalists at the SA Museum from today until September 9.

DESIRE

five things for your wishlist

1

DRY...

your finest crockery with 100 per cent natural linen tea-towels that are lint free and grow softer with age. $37.50 for three from nanahuchy.com.au

2

WORK...

on the move with a leather carry bag from kikki.K's Stockholm range which is large enough for a 15" laptop and has a removable iPad sleeve. $450 kikki-k.com

3

COLOUR...

your world with Lush's emotional brilliance range of metallic eye-liners, eye-shadows and lipsticks. $24.95 each at Lush from today.

4

REDISCOVER...

Alien Aqua Chic reconstituted without alcohol and spiced up with ginger water overlaying the fresh amber notes. Eau de Toilette $79 from Myer and David Jones.

5

STEP...

out in a classic brogue, hand-made in Italy from very soft leather by Pascucci. $195 from Cherri Bellini, 240 Rundle St.

